

Rarely do dogs learn good behavior in a kennel, so we keep them engaged in a real home environment! Offering kind, fair and humane training for your best friend, our school uses the latest scientifically proven techniques to gain amazing results. Radiant heated floors keep your pooch comfortable, while periodic dips in the river keep him having fun. This is the only board and train school where your dog is loved and cared for as you would, complete with holiday parties and regular hikes and excursions. Join the Canine Country School where your dog is family!

We train without breaking your dog's spirit: no pain, fear or intimidation!

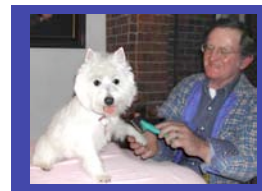

Regardless of how we get to know you and your dog, we know they are like family; too important to just trust just anyone with their care. We freely acknowledge and willingly accept the serious responsibility involved in the stewardship of your pup. Our reputation speaks for itself. Dogs aren't just a hobby for us, they are our passion- don't accept imitations! Referrals are our biggest compliment and we appreciate every one!

Our Pledge to You

- We will deal honestly, fairly, and respectfully with the public, and will put the welfare of pets in our care and service to our customers above personal gain.
- We will honor our commitments to our customers, whether they are made in our advertising, or in person, and will avoid inaccurate or misleading claims about the care which we provide.
- We will respect the confidential nature of our client relationship, and will not release client information to unauthorized individuals.
- We will strive to maintain and advance the professional competence of our staff by taking advantage of the educational opportunities available.
- We will endeavor to resolve any disputes which might arise in a fair, amicable and professional manner.

Private Lessons (ranging from $50-$150) are offered in one of three locales (at our school, in your home or at a park in either Glenwood or Gypsum). This is a great option if you have specific training needs, a tight schedule or prefer custom coaching. Packages are available when multiple lessons are desired.

Sessions are tailored to fit your lifestyle and include humane, effective solutions to problems such as:

-  Barking
-  Chewing
-  Digging
-  Housebreaking
-  Jumping-up
-  Pulling
-  Reactivity
-  General Rudeness

Your dog can learn how to walk gently by your side, rest quietly when asked, and come when called. Learning manners such as greeting guests politely and waiting during family meals is easy when you train your own dog with the guidance of a Certified Professional Dog Trainer!

In-Home Training Courses

Training is scheduled in one- week increments. A Walk through is required for a $50 fee, which will later be credited to the total training investment.

$550/ week

THE MINI COURSE

Developed for the “do-it-yourselfer” who wants a professional head start. This course includes two weeks of intensive training and boarding at the Canine Country School. A private lesson, scheduled at your convenience, will guide you as you complete the training.

Mini Course fee is $1000.

THE MASTER COURSE

Designed for the busy person “on the go” who wants a well-mannered companion. We provide all the equipment and training for four weeks of Boarding School. Your dog will learn a custom designed training program tailored to your lifestyle. Your individualized goals will be given special attention during daily training exercises. At graduation a special session will be set up to explain and transition all the signals your dog has learned and a private lesson will ensure your success!

Master Course fee is $ 1800.

THE VIP COURSE

Created for gifted dogs headed for the show ring, this twelve weeks of boarding school will give your dog the knowledge and polish required for the competitive AKC show ring. A skilled handler will train and travel with your dog to compete.

VIP course fee is $ 4800
plus travel and show expenses.

Free pick-up and delivery available at Dotsero.
